ANOTHER CHARCOAL BILK.

He Gets Away with from Two Thousand and to Three Thousand Dollars.

Herman Trucks—encouraged, probably, by the success, some weeks ago, of W. B. Harbinger, another charcoal man, who succeeded in getting out of the county with $2,000 of other people's money—has absconded, leaving debts behind him, incurred for board, labor, borrowed money, etc., to the amount of $1,000, besides taking with him two span of mules and an excellent wagon, kindly purchased for him by County Treasurer Roeder, and for which Mr. Roeder never received a farthing. Trucks was engaged in burning and hauling charcoal to market. But he had to hire his hauling done at high rates, at first, which caused him to go to Mr. Roeder and ask the loan of enough money to purchase a team of his own, agreeing to pay back the purchase money as fast as he took it in in carrying on business. His story was so plausible and his solicitations so earnest that Mr. Roeder advanced him the amount, being about $1,000 in coin. Then Trucks proceeded to put off other creditors whenever he could, on the pretext that he was paying for his team; but Mr. Roeder was not paid a cent. In this way he managed to get ahead to the amount of about $1,000, besides the cost of his team. Finally, thinking he had played the game about as long as he could with success and safety, he collected all that was due from coal sales, and decamped with the wagon and mules, and $900 in coin. Besides what he owed his wood-choppers and coal-burners, he was behind hand for board at the Eagle Bakery to the amount of $80, and got ahead of various mercantile houses in smaller sums. Mr. Roeder loses about $975. Herman Trucks is a German, probably 35 years of age, is about 5 feet and 6 inches high, compactly built, and has brown hair and blue eyes. A man answering his description was seen driving a four-mule team in the direction of Robinson district. He is closely pursued, and will, if captured, suffer the full penalty of the law. These swindling cases are becoming entirely too frequent in this section.

THEATER.—Last night was the largest house that has been for the past week assembled to witness the "Colleen Bawn." It was splendidly put on the stage, and we venture to say that the drowning of "Eily" never looked more realistic on any stage. It brought down the house in repeated rounds of applause, and the curtain had to be raised, again on the picture. Much credit is due to Mr. Schofield for some very handsome new scenery, more especially an Irish glen and the Cave scene. The songs incidental to the play were well received. Mrs. Bates played Anne Chute with vim, and was the life of every scene in which she appeared. Miss Marian as Eily played the part with a charming simplicity. The whole company, from Mrs. Bates down, seemed to vie with each other in contributing to the success of the whole. If Mr. Maguire will be under the necessity of turning away hundreds of dollars from the door to-night, again, we say the fault rests in wanting a larger theater. A full house will again to-night greet the "Colleen Bawn."

LEXINGTON DISTRICT.—We yesterday had an interview with a miner just down from Lexington District, which is about 80 miles a little east of north from Pioche—the western boundary of Utah running through it, and Sacramento District joining it on the west. Developments have but recently commenced in Lexington District, but the ledges have been sufficiently tested to justify the opinion that it will become an important camp. Shafts are being sunk on seven different claims, about 150 miners being engaged. The ores are of the milling class, carrying a percentage of gold, and with the splendid natural working facilities there at hand, good pay is expected in mining and reducing them. Wood and water are abundant, and there are tracts of good farming land contiguous.

DEPARTURE OF A RECORD EMPLOYEE.—Charles W. Crane, for several months book-keeper and general business manager of this office, leaves Pioche this morning for San Francisco, where he will engage in business. Our best wishes go with Mr. Crane. He is a young man of exemplary habits, industry, integrity and good business qualifications—qualities worth more than gold to begin the battle of life with. The success of such a man is a foregone conclusion. His services will be appreciated by all with whom he comes into business relationship.

FELL IN AN EPILEPTIC FIT.—A Frenchman named Le Blanc fell in an epileptic fit, yesterday afternoon, about half-past three o'clock, at the corner of Main street and Theater avenue. The vital energies seemed dead for some time. Dr. Lenn Lee, being near, went to the sufferer, and staid with him until he rallied, giving directions to his friends for his treatment until fully recovered. He was carried into a room in the rear of the Miners' saloon, lower Main street, where he is being kindly cared for. Mr. Le Blanc is said to be a hardworking, temperate and industrious man.

NO SNOW THERE.—Mr. Wilson, of Hiko, informs us that there never has been over six inches of snow in Pahranagat Valley at any time in the last six years, and that this winter it was at no time over three inches deep. The snow on Irishman mountain, however, where the leading mines are, has been, and still is, very deep—mining operations having been suspended, except in the Green Monster tunnel. The new grass is coming up in the main valley.

A WOMAN, who lives and owns property in Meadow Valley street, went to the Sheriff's office last evening to have an officer dispatched to watch and prevent the destruction of certain furniture in a house she had rented to one of the demimonde—believing the woman intended to destroy it, to prevent its attachment for rent, and then leave for Salt Lake City. It is unnecessary to say a county officer did not hire himself out for the purpose.

A PARTY of miners will leave in a day or two for San Francisco District, about 50 miles out on the Salt Lake road.

A GOOD REPORT.—Mr. P. J. H. Smith, a mining partner of Mr. McKean, the unfortunate gentleman who lost his eyesight by a blast in the Peacock mine, yesterday made a partial canvas of the city in his behalf, collecting over $400. It is believed $1,000 more can be raised to-day, as few or none of the leading business houses have been visited. And then some of the kind-hearted ladies of Pioche, we understand, will try and do something towards swelling the fund. We believe the proposed sum of $3,000 will be raised.

NEW DISCOVERIES IN BRISTOL DISTRICT.—Very rich discoveries have been lately made in Bristol district, equalling if not surpassing in assay of ore and width of vein the best mines now in progress of development there. Considerable excitement has been caused in mining circles in consequence of these discoveries. If these outside developments and discoveries continue in the future the reputation of the Pioche lodes for production will be endangered. Bristol district is now in Lincoln county.

PERSONAL.—Judge James H. Hardy, one of California's most able and distinguished counsellors, here on professional business, renewed the acquaintance of auld lang syne yesterday, by a friendly call at our sanctum. Almost a life-time's acquaintance with the Judge is our authority for saying he unites with his transcendent legal ability every element that goes towards making up true and dignified manhood. We hope his sojourn in Pioche will be long, pleasant and profitable.

DEPARTS THIS MORNING.—Mr. Ye, of the well-known San Francisco liquor importing firm of E. A. Fargo & Co., leaves for that city this morning. During his brief sojourn among us Mr. Ye has made many personal friends, and we hope it has been profitable in business point of view. A safe and pleasant return trip, old friend.

ANOTHER EPILEPTIC CASE.—A young man known as "Shiner" fell in an epileptic fit, just after noon yesterday, on Main street, above Meadow Valley. A prompt application of restoratives soon brought him back to consciousness, when he rapidly recovered.

DRUNKEN MEN.—At 9 o'clock last night we counted ten drunken men on Main street, between Meadow Valley and the Record office. It is unnecessary for our local practitioners to write dissertations on the great prevalence of pneumonia in Pioche.

EVERETT FELT, from whose left leg the greater portion of the tibia bone was removed, ten or twelve days ago, is doing finely. Symptoms of ossification are being manifested, and there is hope of the leg being restored entire. It is an extreme case.

MATRIMONIAL.—Day before yesterday, in San Francisco, John J. Halpin, of Pioche, and Miss Maggie Howard, of the former city, were united in the bonds of matrimony. The happy couple were yesterday to start east on a bridal tour.

MORE SHADE TREES.—Frank Wheeler has shown his good taste and public spirit by having a row of beautifully strait and symmetrical shade trees set out in front of his residence on Cedar street.

PRODUCE COMING IN.—A number of teams came in yesterday from Salt Creek, Utah, loaded with flour, butter, eggs, etc. Their owners report the roads still very bad, but improving.

SERIOUS TROUBLED DISEASE.—A woman on Meadow Valley street, whose name we failed to obtain, is lying low with the odema of the glottis—a throat affection which is often fatal.

MR. LANE'S patent hoisting works indicator is in operation at the Meadow Valley hoisting works No. 5. It will pay to walk up the hill to see the ingenious contrivance.

C. W. LIGHTNER COMING.—The telegraph informs us that C. W. Lightner, the former Superintendent of the Raymond & Ely mine, will be in on to-night's Hamilton coach.

DRYING UP.—The streets are drying up rapidly. If the weather continues clear and warm we will soon have dusty streets again.

BOONE & DELMAN received a large quantity of baled hay yesterday from Meadow Valley.

DUE from Hamilton to-day by stage: C. W. Lightner and Mrs. Lansing
